

To Whom It May Concern,

In February 2019, all Bowling Green elementary schools will participate in our annual literacy project called 1BookBG: One Community, One Book...Bowling Green Proud! Staff members from BG Christian, St. Aloysius, Montessori, Sleek Academy, Conneaut, Crim, and Kenwood Elementary Schools have united to provide students and families with an engaging literacy experience while connecting with members of our community. The annual book is kept a secret and revealed at an assembly. Students will read with their families, teachers, custodians and other members from their school and community.

Each year Community Trivia Partners host sites for 1BookBG trivia. Families will be encouraged to visit these trivia sites listed on their bookmarks, which are given to each student. Students answer trivia questions related to the book. For correct responses, children will be awarded raffle tickets for school-based drawings. We also request a prize donation of some kind from our trivia sites that will be used as a raffle prize. Some prizes will be literacy-focused and related to the title. 1BookBG will provide all trivia materials to sites. There are three ways to participate: be a trivia site, provide kid/family friendly raffle prizes, or be a financial donor.

The following options to contribute are listed below:

- 1. Yes, we would like to be a trivia site for student
- 2. Yes, we can provide a prize for schools

Please note the trivia site timeline:

- December 20- participation decision from businesses
- January 15- prize donations needed
- January 28- materials distributed to trivia sites
- February 1- reveal day and trivia sites open

- 3. Yes, we would like to be a financial donor

This year, we are also offering options for individuals, families, and businesses to sponsor book purchases. Your sponsorship will provide the "surprise" chosen books to students throughout the community as we read this novel together.
